DEDICATION

The Class of 1988 would like to dedicate the 1988 yearbook to the secretaries in the main offices. Georgeanna, Diane, Robin, Celeste and Mrs. D. have always been there when we needed them. Many of us have spent the majority of our free time in the PPS wing of the offices getting help, visiting and munching their delicious candy.

We would like to thank them for making our senior year a little more special than it already was.

Thank-you,
The Class of 1988

A FOND FAREWELL

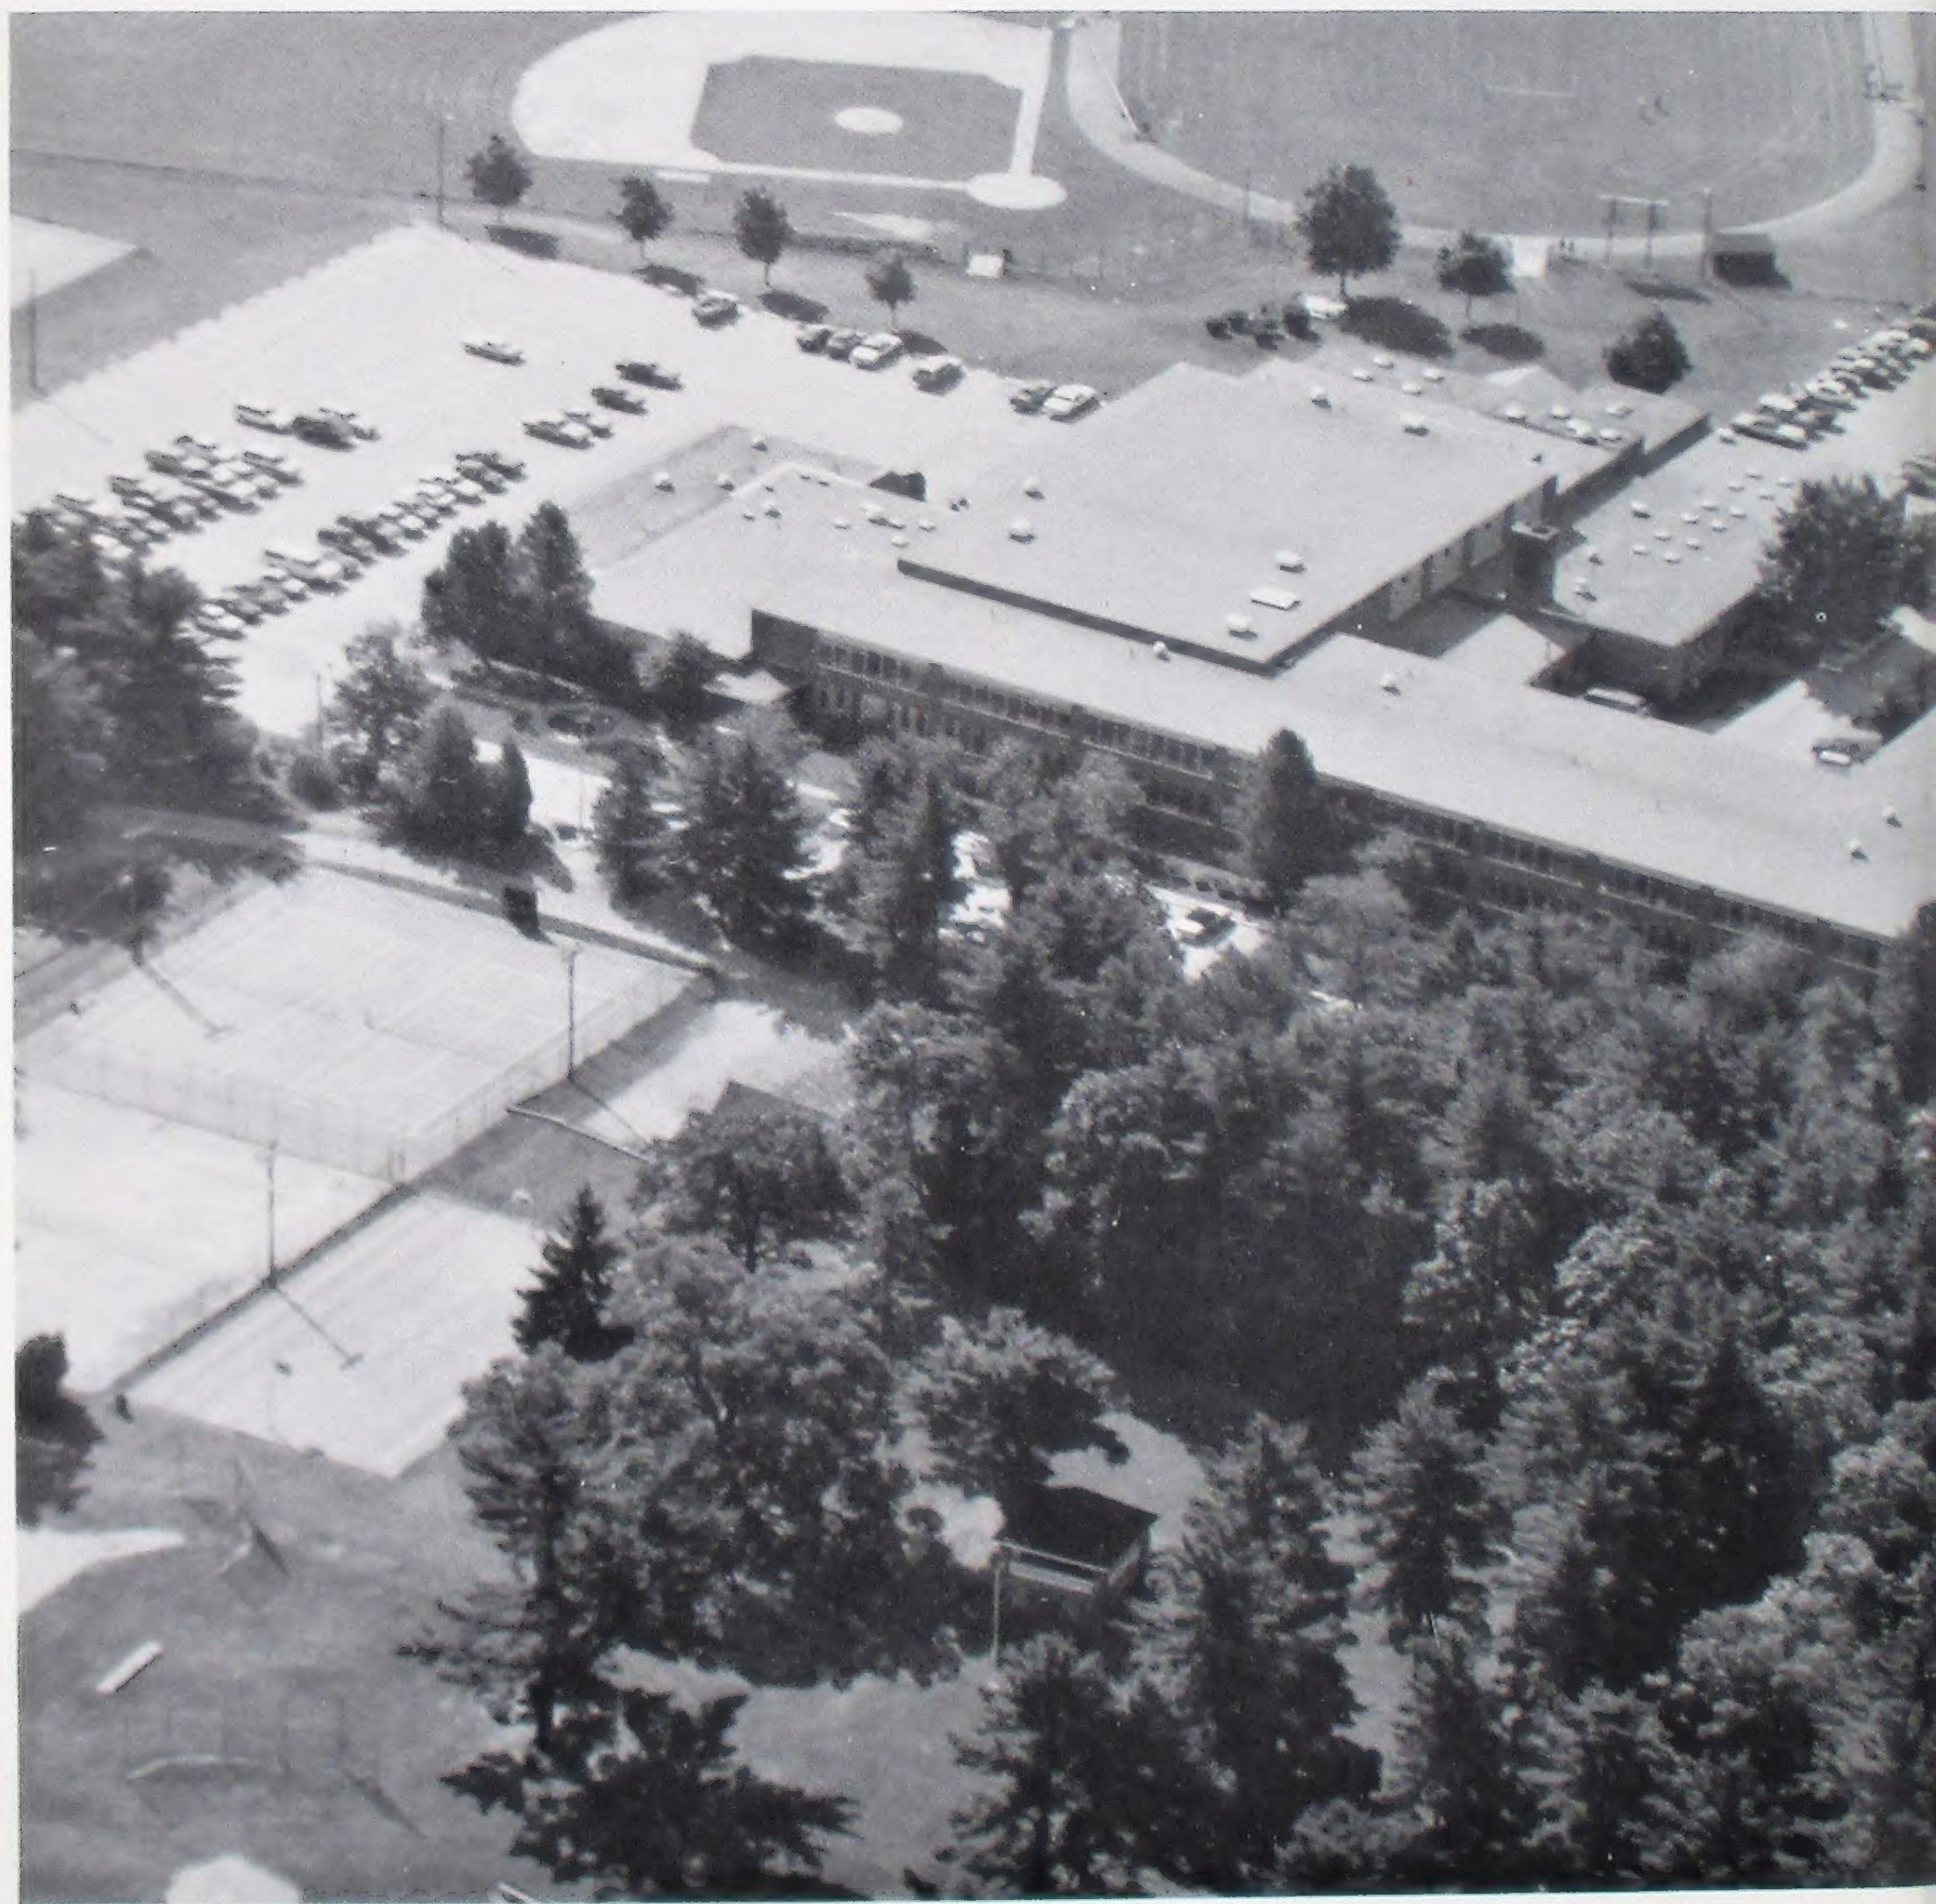

Francis Flanagan was a tree of knowledge. This tree was made of Latin roots, Classical myths and English grammar. "Flan" made every effort to plant a seedling of creativity into every young writer's mind. We wish Mr. Flanagan good luck in Prince Edward Island.

For twelve years, Albert Andrews taught students that they could be creative in a different way; teaching that it can be very rewarding to work with your hands. The school will miss Mr. Andrews and all the carpentry help he has given over the years; many plays and shows could not have gone on without his help. We wish Mr. Andrews good luck with his future plans.

SUPERINTENDENT

TO THE GRADUATES 1988:

You forfeit your chances for life at its fullest when you withhold your best effort in learning. When you give only the minimum to life, you receive only the minimum in return. When you work to your full capacity, you can hope to attain the knowledge and skills that will enable you to create your future and control your destiny. Take hold of your life, apply your gifts and talents, work with dedication and self-discipline. Have high expectations for yourself and convert every challenge into an opportunity.

I urge each of you be open to change, be open to new ideas, and during the years ahead don't be afraid to change your personal goals. Go out of your way to meet people who will inspire you to greater achievements.

Let me express my sincere congratulations to each of you for a job well done. It is my wholehearted hope that: you will always be proud of your school and the community in which you live, and that you maintain your interest in Millis High School and remain loyal to your classmates as you seek a life filled with happiness and success.

Sincerely yours,
Vahan J. Khachadoorian

PRINCIPAL

To the Class of 1988:

"Education forms the common mind; just as the twig is bent, the tree is inclined." These words by Alexander Pope aptly describe what we have attempted to accomplish these past four years. As the quote suggests, this is not an end but merely a segment in a continuum which spans a lifetime. It is our sincere wish that we have provided you the skills, experience and direction to fulfill your inclinations, and in doing so, you will achieve the personal and professional well-being that accompanies real success. Congratulations to each of you upon graduation and may your future be filled with promise and the determination to translate this promise into a better life for yourselves and those whom you serve.

Sincerely,
Paul A. Brunelle

Paul A. Brunelle

Karate Kick.

For a young team, we did our best! There were six upperclassmen on the whole team, the rest of the team was made up of underclassmen who had either little or no experience on a varsity team. Practice was one of the few things that carried us through the season. Some unforgettable memories were: Chumley's karate kick, Ryan's goal keeping, extra laps, triangles, volley kicks, Hoppa steps, Top Gun singing, warmups with Ryan, bus rides home, and the Bellingham win. The snow game with the girls and dinner after is one time we'll never forget. Thank God for a coach with a sense of humor, our team was bad, just bad enough to be funny. Most of these memories will only be shared by the team and their loyal fans. All in all it was a fun year, Thanks.

GOooooo!!!

Captains: Julie Bourgelas, Kristen King, Becky Fraser.

As a first year Varsity team, the season began and we played competitively against all the teams in the league. One of the most memorable games was losing to Westwood by a bad referee call. The soccer ball went through the side of the net instead of through the front and we lost 0-1 in the last 30 seconds of the game. Another good game was playing Medway on a rocky field when suddenly a lightening storm arose in the last 20 minutes causing a delay of the game. Our best memory was ending the season with a win over Norton! Overall it was a great year and Millis Soccer can only improve with their winning attitude and of course Millis Pride.

VOLLEYBALL

The Girls' volleyball team started off well, but due to low self-esteem of the players, the season ended with many losses. The Medfield games were quite intense with much athletic competition between the teams. Lisa Johnson's spiking ability blew away some teams such as Holliston and Bellingham. Lisa won the Most Improved Player Award; Karalyn Walsh and Co-captains Robyn Kaplan and Jackie Champagne were picked to play in the League All-star game, Karalyn played exceptionally well. The five seniors wished it had been a better season to end with but they had fun anyway, and wish the team Good Luck.

The Football team started this year with a new head coach; Coach Quigg, who was assisted by Coaches Hoffman, Ferzoco, and Finassi. The teams record was 3 wins and 7 losses, but the team showed strength as each win was a shut out. The game that made the season was the Thanksgiving Day shut out of Medway with a final score of 15-0. The varsity was made up of many seniors who will definitely be missed by the underclassmen taking their places. Rob Flaherty was voted MVP by the team. Erik Reilly was voted a Milford Daily News All-Star; Erik, John Bis, and Shawn Hill were all voted into the Tri-Valley All Stars.

As always, cheering season was fun, although the boys didn't have their "perfect" season. We never gave up on them knowing full well they would prove to themselves and everyone else we were NUMBER 1! And they did, by crushing Medway and bringing pure delight to the whole squad, especially three very emotional seniors!

Look at that blocking and hand off.

The season began with hard practices (when everyone attended) thanks to our coaches Erik, Rob, John and the rest of the senior football players. We were well prepared for the game vs. Medfield but the Blueberry was just too much to handle. It started off rough and ended on the same note. We had the guts but not the power. Unfortunately, the heated pep talk in the locker room got us nowhere. We may not have won, but we did look better than them!

The game is over and we're finished!

Homecoming weekend was on October 12th this year. It began with the traditional Pep Rally in the gym at the close of school on Friday. The cheerleaders and football players were all ready for the big game that evening, and the crowd waited for the announcement of the finalists for homecoming queen. Karalyn, Deb, Kristen, Jackie, and Lisa were called as this years court and everyone had to wait until halftime to find out which one was selected Queen. At halftime, the winner was revealed! Lisa Monto was Homecoming Queen for 1987.

The Basketball team had many high points this season; such as the overtime win against Medfield in Medfield, and our upset against Hopkinton. Another accomplishment was the win over Holliston which kept them out of the tourney competition. Mike Murphy had a great year, scoring 11 points against Westwood! Mike was voted a Tri-Valley All Star along with the other star seniors; Mark Maquire and Paul Adams. Next year promises to be another exciting year with Captains Scott Nichols and Todd Jasie.

In seasons prior to this one, our first game always had been against the tri-valley league champs (15 years running) — Westwood. This year was different; this year we played the Ashland Clockers, and we dominated! It had been the first tri-valley game that girls basketball had won in the past two years. This pumped us up for the rest of the season. Even when things were as bad as we thought they could get, Susan brought inspiration to the team, which helped Justine become one of the top rebounders in the league. Another strong rebounder was Dawn, the human swat machine erasing points off the board with her blocked shots. The games were held together by the guards, Lori, with her three pointers, Becky, always a strong offensive threat, and saving the best for last, Robyn, the endless scoring machine.

MANDALA

This year the International Club sponsored an International Week; the high school was decorated with foreign travel posters and posters made by students in grades K-12. Everyday was a new culinary treat in the cafe, each day brought foods from another country. Highlights of the school week were the Spectrum Percussion Trio and the foreign students from various countries. Saturday was the Winter Carnival, which unfortunately did not have snow, but there were outside games for everyone. The Wagner Car Bash was one of the top rated events of the day! Inside booths were set up to sell anything and everything. The day ended with a spaghetti dinner in the cafe followed by the main event of the week — the Mandala Concert which filled the auditorium to capacity. A great end to a fun week.

Mike gets some advice.

The Baseball team ended the season with a 11-7 record landing them the third place finish in the Tri-Valley League. One of the highlights of the season was the unexpected win against Bellingham giving the team the first place lead for a while. Mark Maguire, Mike, Murphy, and Erik Reilly were voted into the Tri-Valley Allstars; while the team elected Mike for most valuable player and Coach Stewart named Mark as the Unsung Hero. The team went on to the State Tournament and won an exciting game with back to back homeruns against Avon; unfortunately their winning streak didn't last.

The Winners: C. Matukaitis, D. Burbank, D. Douglas, S. Coste, G. Bosse (not pictured).

This year the Science department held a Science Fair on March 25th, open to all high school students. Students were responsible for staying with their projects all day in the gym and explaining their work to students, parents, teachers and most importantly to the judges. Students were questioned by two different judges on all aspects of the project, some of the judging was intense! The winners (on prev. pg.) went on to a regional fair held in Bridgewater the following week. We can't forget to state that Deb Shea won the popular vote with her trained mice.

Seniors '88

T'was the night of graduation
 And all through the school
 Not a senior was lurking
 For that was the rule.
 They were all dressed up
 In their caps and gowns.
 The girls were all smiling
 The boys had no frowns.
 They walked down the rows
 And stepped up the stairs,
 Then strolled to their seats
 And said a few prayers.
 They anxiously awaited
 Their names to be read,
 While thoughts of the future
 Ran through their heads.
 The ceremony was over
 And they all filed out,
 All dancing and screaming
 And many did shout.
 But then thoughts of Millis
 Came back to their heads.
 All good things that have happened,
 The times not hard to find.
 And then one senior realized,
 That Millis wasn't through.
 She ran and told her classmates
 There were things they must do.
 She rattled off duties
 To her left and right.
 They all ran half crazy
 For they've just begun their fight.
 She told them all to live
 In their own style and way,
 And Millis will always be there
 To visit some day.
 As the lights all went out
 And the seniors went to bed,
 Thoughts of their future
 Were pleasant they've said.

FRANK DAVIS RESORT

Lounging in the shade.

Despite the late departure from Millis and the gloomy morning weather, the day brightened when we finally arrived and the activities began. We almost won the balloon toss and gave the sack race a good try; but our canoeing abilities left much to be desired! Rob Flaherty sacrificed his ankle to make a spectacular catch during a softball game. Mr. Dooling helped to administer first aid. The days events wound down leaving us exhausted and the bus ride home to think of the exciting days to follow.

Class Will — Karalyn Walsh and Kerry Shearns.

Class History — Joanne Russo and Deb Shea.

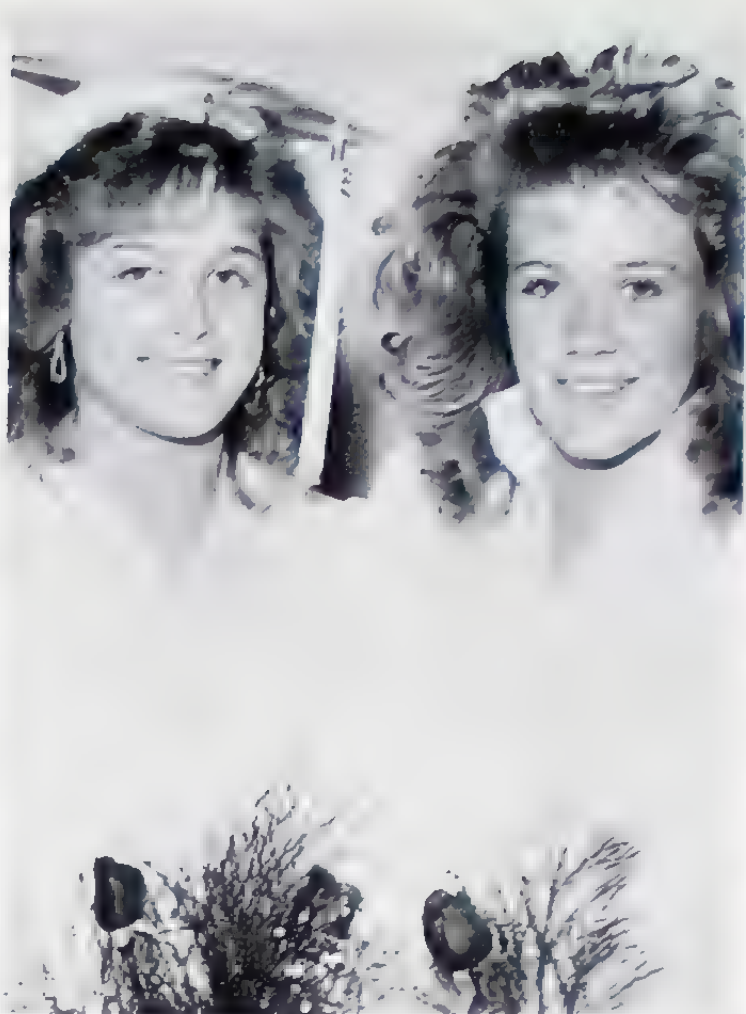

Becky's Trophy for Most Athletic.

Bruce Bolio and Mr. Brunelle.

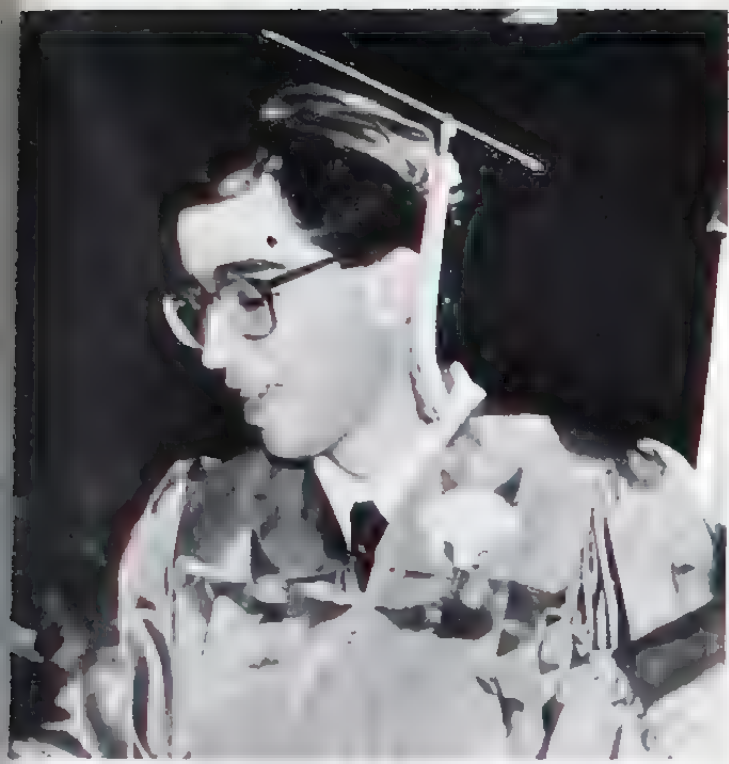

Steve Messineo and Mr. Brunelle.

Class Day was for looking back and looking forward. Iori Sakagami and Carlos Llobell bid farewell following Debbie Shea's opening remarks. The class history was read by Debbie Shea and Joanne Russo. Karalyn Walsh and Kerry Shearns dealt with the present by reading the class will. Everyone agreed that the class song "I've had the time of my life" summed up a lot of feelings; the crowd was entertained by Michael Griffin's "Dirty Dancing" leap into Dennis Braun's arms. Jackie Andrey, Noel Vigue, and Kristen King put on quite a performance to deliver the prophecy. Awards were given out by Mr. Brunelle, Mrs. Egy, and Mr. Gubala. With time running out all the seniors received balloons from the PSAC.

GRADUATION

After years of anticipation, the night of graduation finally arrived. We bobby-pinned our hats, the girls took their roses and then we all marched out. Deb Shea gave a welcome address as Class President and then she delivered her Salutatory. Following Deb's speech, June Ritterbusch gave the Valedictory. The awarding of the scholarships seemed long, but the recipients were certainly appreciative. The climax was receiving our diplomas. After that, there was nothing to do but celebrate!

June Ritterbusch
Valedictorian

Good evening ladies and gentlemen. Graduation has made me think of the panorama of things in high school. These scenes make up the last four years of my life, and it is difficult to say good-bye to them.

Never again will I be marching with the band. No more fights with the football team. No more Christmas concerts or Memorial Day parades. I will even miss Mr. T.

Time will never bring me to another soccer or track practice. I never have to run "one more sprint". But then I won't be with my old teammates either.

School activities are over for me. No more International Club, school newspaper, student council. Thank God no more fund raisers.

The Class of '88 activities have ended. The ski trip is done, the cruise has ended and senior week is finished. Mrs. Fraser and Mr. Fair can rest now.

No more science classes, Shakespeare or notebooks to pass in! But I can't take anymore classes with Mr. Tuohey or Mrs. Russ either. And I never got to take Psych with Dools.

All of the seniors are going their own ways soon. We won't see superflies, or Larry Losers and we won't be able to ask "What does it say?"

Most of all I am going to miss my good friends who have given me the support I have needed. Thanks to my family, including Fred and Mark. I love you all and I will treasure the good times.

Reverend Clergy, Members of the School Committee, Mr. Khachadoorian, Mr. Brunelle, faculty, parents, relatives, friends, and especially members of the Class of '88 — tonight is the night! Tonight each graduate receives his or her diploma acknowledging the completion of four years of high school. This diploma does not simply signify a graduation from academics but also a graduation from an era of personal growth and enrichment. Up until now, we, the Class of '88 have felt secure knowing that no major change would upset our lives, that Millis High School would be here for us yet another year. However, this year, that is not the case. Our thirteen years together are coming to a close and we must not forget these years but instead use them as a foundation for what is to come.

This night is a culmination of many years of hard work, not only by the students but by all of the faculty as well. Never enough credit is given to our elementary teachers who have instilled in us the very basic requirements that are essential to everyday life. They have turned those funny looking letters on a page into expressions full of meaning. They have also taught us that two is more than one and more is, many times, better than less, such as with friends and loves ones. Then our high school educators have taken these years of fundamental instruction and put them to the test by applying these concepts to original thoughts and ideas. For these contributions to the journey ahead of us, we thank you.

Thank you Millis High, teachers, friends, and staff for all that you have given me and my classmates. Our memories here will endure forever.

So as not to delay the rest of the night's exciting events any longer, I would like to express my deepest appreciation and love to my parents and my sister who have ultimately enabled me to stand up here on this podium tonight. For without their encouragement, support, and senses of humor, I would not have been able to make it.

Finally, I would like to say good luck to the Class of 1988 and best wishes for a happy, healthy and successful life. Thank you.
